

Guangzhou Xiang Jiang High School invites you to teach in Guangzhou, China

Guangzhou Xiang Jiang International High School, with its vertically-aligned Advanced Placement curriculum, including the College Board's new AP Capstone Diploma Program, seeks passionate, committed teachers for the following positions open in the Fall 2019:

One ESL Teacher to teach English as a foreign language to grades 11 and 12. This position also teaches AP English Literature and AP Seminar (as part of the AP Capstone Diploma Program).

One College Counselor with responsibilities to include: teaching sections of College Preparation and individual college counseling/admissions with a caseload of students.

These are full-time positions with long-term tenure dependent on performance.

XJIHS is part of a private boarding school (Xiang Jiang Secondary School) established in 2008. The campus is located on Jade-Green Island, 20 miles (30 km) from downtown Guangzhou, in southeastern China's Guangdong province, also home to Hong Kong. Jade-Green Island is a quiet, private, and very attractive residential area. Xiang Jiang Secondary School currently employs more than 100 teachers and staff members serving approximately 1,200 middle and high school students. The campus covers an area of more than 100 acres, with a variety of facilities and advanced equipment, allowing XJIHS to ensure a top-tier international educational experience for all its student and staff. The International School was completely renovated during the summer of 2018, and all academic and support programs were consolidated into a single, independent facility.

At XJIHS we pride ourselves on our rigorous curriculum, teacher-advisory system, in-house TOEFL, SAT, and college counseling programs, and our strong international exchange relationships with top-ranked American high schools through collaboration with SPIRAL International. XJIHS ensures that each student will be enrolled in a well-known overseas higher education institution upon graduation. The Class of 2018 had a college placement rate of 78% admitted to top 50 U.S. colleges and universities and 100% in top 100 U.S. colleges and universities.
