

Chinese high school student seeks HOST FAMILY in CONNECTICUT for 6/18-7/10

Jimmy is an outgoing boy from China, who is currently a sophomore at Woodstock Academy in Connecticut. He seeks a host family to live with between the end of the school year and the start of his summer pre-college courses in digital animation at UConn. Jimmy enjoys music, basketball, tennis and is eager to connect with new people. He speaks English fluently.

Key Information:

- Host dates: June 18 – July 10 (3 weeks)
- Host family will provide companionship and a family atmosphere, lodging, and meals.
- Jimmy will provide:
 - his own spending money, so he'll pay for his personal expenses.
 - his own medical insurance, so host families are NOT responsible for any eventual medical expenses.
- SPIRAL International (the sponsoring organization) will provide:
 - a stipend of $300 per week ($900 total)
 - 24-hour emergency support.

Help foster global connections within our communities! If interested, please contact Jason at jason.shi@spiralinternational.org

SPIRAL International, an educational organization based in Vermont, has supported student exchanges in New England since 2010. www.spiralinternational.org